

Margulies Perruzzi Architects' Dan Perruzzi Named to Massachusetts Building Congress Board of Directors

BOSTON, Mass. – October 5, 2010 – Margulies Perruzzi Architects, one of Boston's most innovative architectural and interior design firms, today announced that principal Daniel P. Perruzzi, Jr., AIA, LEED AP, has been named to the Board of Directors of the Massachusetts Building Congress. Dan will serve on the organization's program committee where he will assist in the planning of events and forums.

With over 30 years of experience as an architect, project manager and principal, Dan is currently principal-in-charge for the design of the new Boston Tea Party Ships and Museum. Dan is a member of the American Institute of Architects (AIA) and the Boston Society of Architects (BSA), and has served in several leadership roles for the BSA. Dan graduated from the Rhode Island School of Design where he received Bachelor of Architecture and Bachelor of Fine Arts degrees.

The Massachusetts Building Congress (MBC) brings together decision makers from all corners of the $27 billion design and construction industry in Massachusetts. Established in 1921, the MBC provides a business and networking forum for companies and individuals in the building industry. Through monthly breakfast programs, social and fundraising events, and educational forums, the MBC helps members promote their business while advancing the mutual interests of all. Members include architects, owners, engineers, construction managers, general contractors, labor, subcontractors and allied professionals.
