Boston-based Margulies & Assoc., an architectural and interior design firm, recently won an Award of Excellence from the Architectural Woodwork Institute for its design for a Boston-based asset management firm. AWI's widely-respected Award of Excellence program distinguishes the finest custom architectural woodwork projects and acknowledges the efforts of the architects, design professionals and woodwork manufacturers responsible for those projects. With a focus on investing in European companies, the client's primary goal was to create a classic, impressive space that complements its working style and environment. In response, Margulies & Assoc. designed an elegant 8,400-square-foot office suite that reflects classic continental and American aesthetics.
