Three More LEED APs At Margulies Perruzzi

August 11, 2009

Jane Sullivan, Marnie Glover and Saul Accetta have earned the Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design (LEED) accredited professional certification at Boston's Margulies Perruzzi Architects.

With this announcement, almost three-quarters of Margulies Perruzzi Architects' professional staff are now LEED APs.

Sullivan, an interior designer at the firm, has 19 years of experience providing design services for all phases of a project from schematic design to construction administration. Glover, an architectural designer, has 14 years of professional experience working with corporate and commercial clients. Accetta, an architectural designer, has experience in team implementation of 3D and Building Information Modeling (BIM) software, construction administration and documentation, and code and specification research.
