

Margulies & Associates Expands Roster with Four New Hires

BOSTON, MA – January 5, 2005 – To augment its award-winning staff of architects and interior designers, Margulies & Associates, one of Boston’s pre-eminent architectural and interior design firms, announced today the addition of four new design professionals.

Jennifer Latto, NCIDQ, Associate AIA – Project Manager

Ms. Latto currently manages several projects for Margulies & Associates, including corporate offices for The Coyle Company, a public relations agency serving the technology industry, office space for IntrinsiQ Data Collection, a developer and provider of oncology treatment products and services, and function and meeting spaces for The State Room at 60 State Street in Boston. Prior to joining Margulies & Associates, Ms. Latto served as a team leader on a range of projects in the Pacific Northwest, including the Riverstone Office Building, Crafts Americana Office Building, Park Place Condominiums and the Metropolitan Association of Realtors. Ms. Latto holds a Bachelor of Science in Design from Clemson University and a Bachelor of Architecture from North Carolina State University.

Steven F. Wychorski – Interior Designer

Combining broad experience in corporate and commercial architecture with the discerning eye of a talented interior designer, Mr. Wychorski is currently designing several projects for Margulies & Associates: office space at the Charles River Park Penthouse for The Davis Companies, a new addition for Ken’s Foods in Marlborough, MA, and entry canopy and landscaping improvements for the Liberty Mutual Corporate Headquarters. Bringing over 20 years of experience, Mr. Wychorski previously worked on numerous Boston-based projects such as interior renovations of the Office of the Attorney General, new corporate headquarters for Standards & Poors, and office renovations for Brown, Brothers Harriman Co. Holding a B.F.A. from the Massachusetts College of Art, Mr. Wychorski also received an Interior Design Certificate from the Boston Architectural Center and was honored with the Award for Best Interior Design Thesis. Mr. Wychorski is a member of the Northeast Sustainable Design Association (NESEA).

Cynthia Boudreau – Architectural Designer

Having worked at Margulies & Associates from 1996-1999, Ms. Boudreau returns as an Architectural Designer for a new 340,000-square foot Member Services Center for Blue Cross Blue Shield of Massachusetts. A graduate of the Boston Architectural Center, Ms. Boudreau has extensive experience designing academic and institutional facilities, including a tenant fit-out for the Harvard University Information Systems, an interior fit-out for Worcester Polytechnic Institute (WPI), and the rehabilitation of a laboratory for Jackson Laboratories.
