

Margulies & Associates Ranked Top Architectural Firm

Rises two positions on Boston Business Journal's list

BOSTON, Mass., November 6, 2006 – Margulies & Associates, one of Boston's most innovative architectural and interior design firms, announced today that the firm has been recognized by the Boston Business Journal (BBJ) as one of the area's leading architectural firms.

Margulies & Associates was featured on the BBJ's 2006 list of the area's top architectural firms, ranked by 2005 Massachusetts architectural billings. This year's list ranks Margulies & Associates as the thirteenth largest architectural firm in Massachusetts, up from number fifteen last year.

"We've focused every aspect of our firm, from hiring to resources to technology, on providing exceptional professional architectural services to the corporate community one client at a time," said Marc Margulies, AIA, principal of Margulies & Associates. "It is an honor to be recognized by the Boston Business Journal for the results of those efforts."

Current or recent projects include multiple locations for Blue Cross Blue Shield of Massachusetts, Ken's Foods, The State Room, Tyco, and One Beacon Insurance.
